

Get Your Wardrobe Ready for Spring While Supporting the Northumberland Hills Hospital

May 11, 2006

Port Hope - Stephen and Teri-Jo Ashton, owners of G. Facey Clothing, The Senate and Chicks & the Magpie in Port Hope are pleased to announce the details of "The Best Reason", a special evening event on Thursday, May 18th in support of the Northumberland Hills Hospital.

The Ashton's are generously donating ½ of their sales proceeds from all three stores from this evening to the Clay & Elaine Elliott Women's Health Centre.

"Stephen and Teri-Jo continue to be great supporters of the Women's Health Centre at the hospital." says Lisa Reed, Chair of Third Party/Signature Events, Northumberland Hills Hospital Foundation, "This is another wonderful example of how the local business community supports the efforts of the hospital Foundation."

Mark, Thursday, May 18th (from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.) on your calendar to do some spring shopping at these three great Port Hope shops.

- G.Facey Clothing, 57 Walton Street
- The Senate, 56 Walton Street
