

Tickets Sold-out for Hospital Foundation's Sixth Annual Gala Ball

For Immediate Release, October 20, 2006

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY – Tickets for the 6th annual hospital gala, benefiting the Northumberland Hills Hospital Foundation, are now sold out. The Foundation and the volunteer gala ball committee, led by co-chairs Jan Boycott and Robin Thibodeau, are thrilled by the community's tremendous reaction to 'Glitz & Glam ...A Roaring Evening.'

"The response to the 'Glitz & Glam' event has been outstanding," says co-chair Jan Boycott. "As they did during the past five years, west Northumberland has once again shown incredible support for the gala and the hospital."

The glitzy evening will begin at 6 p.m. on Saturday, November 18th, and will take place at the Life Long Learning Centre in Cobourg. Plans include: fabulous food, live music, live and silent auctions, and a few added surprises that should make the evening one to remember.

"We have a solid planning team working diligently to finalize the details of the 'Glitz & Glam' event," says co-chair Robin Thibodeau. "Based on the dedication of our volunteers, and the support we've received from the community, I believe this will be our finest gala yet."

The event is on target to raise $105,000 with funds directed towards the high priority equipment needs of the Operating Room and Surgical Services Program at the Northumberland Hills Hospital.

While tickets are sold out, community members are encouraged to visit the gala website at www.nhhgala.ca; the site offers more information, and a chance to bid on some of the wonderful items up for auction at this year's event.

-30-

For more information, please call

John Russell, Development Coordinator

Northumberland Hills Hospital Foundation

(905) 372-6811, ext. 3065