

Northumberland's Got Talent Fundraising Event in Support of the Northumberland Hills Hospital

For Immediate Release – January 29, 2008

Northumberland County – Entries are being accepted now for the 2nd Northumberland's Got Talent event in support of the Northumberland Hills Hospital.

Started in 2007, Northumberland's Got Talent is open to Northumberland County residents ages 7 to 17 who can sing, dance, play a musical instrument or put on a magic or musical theatre performance. Lip-syncing performances with choreography as well as any other fun and exciting talent are also eligible for entry.

Auditions for Northumberland's Got Talent will be held during the day on March 1st at CDCI West with a showcase of finalists set for that night beginning at 7:00 p.m. Prizes will be awarded for the best performances, including a flat panel TV, donated by Cobourg Audio Video, to the first-place act. Local businesses have donated many other prizes and gift certificates.

"We are looking forward to another great event showcasing some of Northumberland's great talent," states event Chairperson Grace Moore. "We are once again expecting a variety of entertainment, so if you think you have what it takes then hurry and register."

If you or your group has a special talent, which you would like to showcase during Northumberland's Got Talent registration forms are available by calling Grace Moore at 905-375-8154 or e-mailing her at northumberlandsgettalent@gmail.com.

Audition spots are $15 for groups of 5 people or less and $25 for groups of more than 5 people. Register today to ensure your spot! The deadline for registration is February 15th, 2008.

All proceeds raised through Northumberland's Got Talent will support the capital equipment needs of the Maternal Child Care Unit of the Northumberland Hills Hospital.
