

Stanley Cup Champion & NHL All-Star Announces Details of the 3rd Annual Justin Williams & Friends Northumberland Tire Charity Golf Classic

For Immediate Release: March 20th, 2008

Northumberland – Cobourg native, Stanley Cup Champion and NHL All-Star Justin Williams, of the Carolina Hurricanes, and his parents Craig and Denise Williams have announced plans to host the 3rd Annual Justin Williams & Friends Northumberland Tire Charity Golf Classic.

"I'm pleased to host this event once again, because it will allow me to continue to support the community where I was born and raised," says Justin, "Last year's event was a great success raising over $30,000, and I'm looking forward to this year's tournament."

For the third consecutive year, Ron & Linda Spiewak of Northumberland Tire in Port Hope and Cobourg continue to show their community spirit by returning as the tournament's Signature Sponsor.

The event will be held on Wednesday, August 6th, 2008 at the Dalewood Golf & Curling Club. The day begins at 11:30 a.m. with a private lunch for the golfers and special invited guests followed by a shotgun start at 1 p.m. The format of the tournament is 4-person scramble (best ball).

Proceeds from this event will be directed toward the Northumberland Hills Hospital Foundation in support of the hospital's priority capital equipment needs.

"We're excited about this event and happy to continue our support of the hospital in the process," say Craig and Denise Williams.

Golfer registration will begin on Monday, April 21st on a first come, first serve basis. Organizers anticipate another sell-out event.
